

CROWN. SATURDAY'S USUAL PRODUCE SALE.

TUESDAY'S USUAL PRODUCE SALE.
WOOL, TALLOW, HIDES, AND SHEEPSKINS.
MR. MORT
 Will sell by public auction, at his Rooms,
 George-street,
ON SATURDAY, 29TH JULY,
 At 12 o'clock.
BALES FLEECE WOOL
 21 Casks mutton, and 79 Casks beef tallow
 3700 Sheepskins

Terms—Cash. 1649

23 HORSES,
AND 9 MARES.

R. STEWART will sell by auction,
at the Cattle Market,
ON FRIDAY, 4TH AUGUST, HEAD OF HORSES, consisting of mares, four and five years old, by St.
John and Skeleton. Several are broken in to saddle and harness, and there are sixteen teys among them, fit for carriage horses.

R. STEWART will sell by auction,
at his Stables, in York-street,
ON SATURDAY,
THIRTEEN HORSES, consisting of mares and geldings, and entire, suitable for all purposes. 1645

METEOROLOGY.
Compiled expressly for the Sydney Morning Herald.

WINDS.

W., N.E., N.
S.W. by W., S.
S.S.W., S.
S.W. by W., S.W., S.S.W.
W., S.S.W., S., S. by W.,
W.S.W., S.W., S. by W.,
W. by S., S.W.

TEMPERATURE.	WET-BULB.		2 1/2 F.M.		MAXIM.		MINIM.
	9 P.M.	5 P.M.	5 P.M.	9 P.M.	5 P.M.	9 P.M.	5 P.M.	9 P.M.
100°	55	57	59	48
90°	52	60	56	49
80°	47	49	51	45
70°	48	48	52	39
60°	49	51	55	41
50°	48	53	55	44
40°	52	53	55	42

TERMINAL	TERMINATOR		DETACHED TERMINAL
	N. A. 0	N. A. 1	N. A. 2	N. A. 3
56	57	49	59
56	54	53	56
52	50	47	51
52	52	43	52
53	52	43	55
54	53	45	56
55	54	44	55

BAROMETER.	ATTACH.
	3 P.M.	6 P.M.
29-956	29-937	29-938
29-940	29-936	29-955
30-126	30-126	29-145
30-148	30-147	30-147
30-136	30-130	30-128
30-110	30-107	30-107
29-950	29-940	29-934

DATE.	MOON'S AGE.
DAY, 18	17
WEDNESDAY, 19	18
THURSDAY, 20	19
FRIDAY, 21	20
SATURDAY, 22	21
SUNDAY, 23	22
MONDAY, 24	23

* An inappreciable quantity.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Tuesday 18.—Morning light westerly air, gloomily overcast and foggy; middle and latter part light north-easterly air and calms, partial clouds and sunshine. Evening lighting throughout the eastern hemisphere; thickly clouded and damp, and some spittings of rain till 10 o'clock.

Wednesday 19.—Light south-west breezes all about 10 o'clock, when south wind arose, bringing up large masses of cumulus and nimbus and some slight showers of rain passed over;

now extremely coarse, and so continued through the night; lightning in north early light; occasional spitting rain.

Thursday 20.—Strong coarse wind all this morning, south-south-west veering to south; cloudy, and a very raw cold atmosphere, with occasional flying showers till noon, then cleared up, continued to blow very hard and squally all of the day, and latterly with rain. Night fresh breezes, cloudy and damp.

Friday 21.—Fresh wind throughout, cold winter weather, generally cloudy, and atmosphere raw and chilly morning and evening.

Saturday 22.—Keen westerly wind early clouds gathered darkly through the eastern mists. Subsequently, a part a starry but occasional light showers flying over mists, Sunday 23.—Morning ceases, sharp cold air. Citro-status thinly veiling the sky. Wind veered south-south west, and blew fresh nearly all day, fine and hazy weather. Night fresh, atmosphere hazy and damp.

 Monday 24.—Fresh breezes early part muggy and very raw and cold. Between 11 and 1 o'clock, fog cleared off, and considered quite fine weather, with light and moderate breeze from the S.W. Night

BIRTHS.
On the 22nd ultimo, at Hobarton, Van diemen's Land, the wife of Mr. Philip Snape, a son.
On the 21st instant, at the Parsonage, Richmond, the wife of the Rev. John Elder of a son.

DIED.
Suddenly, on the 26th July, at his residence,
Five Dock, Parramatta River, Mr. James
Abb, in the forty-eighth year of his age, leaving wife and seven children to lament their loss.

/nla.news-page15

territorial proprietor. He had stronger and more obligatory ties inducing his exertions for the good of his country on account of his children. Mr. Bowman was stung—he was an ungrateful man. (Loud hisses and cries of uproar.) Mr. (L.) had been long waiting for this opportunity and he would repeat it distinctly he was ungrateful. (Loud hisses and uproar.) Even Mr. Bowman's old friends complain of his having deserted them. His friends claimed the latter by their title. With cold indifference he discards those who have made use of him.

A Voice in the crowd: Who signed Mr. Bowman's requisition.

Mr. FANSHAW: Mr. Fitzgerald. Here it is in my own handwriting. (The requisition was shown, and about five minutes uproar succeeded.) Quiet being restored.

Mr. LAWSON proceeded: He would explain the requisition. It was nothing—it was merely got up when he was going forward and any other person would come forward; or at least only Mr. Hosking was talked about. Mr. Fitzgerald had signed it without reading it. It was surely a requisition for Mr. Bowman to stand forward and involve no pledge, as it was thought better to have him than a Crown nominee. Many persons had also signed it in a similar way to what Mr. Fitzgerald had done, not knowing that Mr. Fitzgerald would stand after the remarks on Mr. Bowman, but merely recapitulation of what he had before said. Mr. Lawson concluded, and amidst loud cheers and hisses and cries of "we won't have him," said:

Mr. BOWMAN then addressed the electors. He felt great pleasure in meeting the electors. Mr. Fitzgerald having been proposed and seconded it was his duty under the most serious consideration to do so. He was not sure that he otherwise would. Perhaps, however, it was not necessary for him to say much, nor would he attempt or did he intend to do so, because throughout his career his public and private conduct had been most scrupulously correct. He was glad to have the honour of being returned to the Legislative Council. The electors were fully aware he was not a man of first-rate abilities; but he went to the Council with an intention to do his best, and to examine every measure submitted, and honestly and fairly meet it. The electors were fully aware he was not a most eloquent man; eloquence was a gift rarely possessed; but he believed he was a man of common sense, and such a perception of right and wrong, as would enable him to meet and determine questions honestly. There had been subjects of importance to the interests of the colony under his administration in the Council, which, if he had not made any display in, he had been at his post and concurred with, and assisted abler men than himself, who had introduced them, in bringing them to bear. He was at such a time, and he was sure that one, was a serviceable one. He would not speak of his conduct; the electors were able to and doubtless would appreciate it. If they did not consider him qualified to let them reject him, as they would not do so, he would retain such impression, not to do so. Mr. Lawson had spoke of his (Mr. B.'s) pointing out Mr. Fitzgerald's deficiencies. If (Mr. B.) could he would not, for Mr. Fitzgerald's deficiencies would be his own capabilities. His sole desire was to serve the electors. If they considered he had served them, was capable of doing so, he was willing to employ his best exertions in their behalf if they would again confer the honour on him. Mr. Lawson, had adverted to his private character. He did not, nor could he believe Mr. Fitzgerald had come forward, as that gentleman had again and again promised him his support in his opinion of his political character. After apologizing to the electors for not having personally canvassed them, and reiterating his views, the speaker sat down amidst loud and continued cheering.

Mr. LAWSON, the agent for Mr. Fitzgerald, briefly stated that gentleman's desire to secure the suffrages of the electors; and added Mr. Fitzgerald would be in Windsor that night, or to-morrow (to-day), and personally meet them.

Mr. LAWSON would ask Mr. Lawson to state if he was authorized under Mr. Fitzgerald's hand to propose him.

Mr. LAWSON: I am authorized. Mr. Fitzgerald has requested it.

The question was again put by Mr. LAWSON and a similar reply given.

Two other electors and Mr. JOHNSON then presented their requisition, Mr. Lawson signed Mr. Fitzgerald's signature to the requisition, and pledged himself to assist in securing Mr. Bowman's return. The same answer as the one previously given was returned to each of the requisition, with the exception that returned to Mr. JOHNSON, of "none of your grand impudence."

THE RETURNING OFFICER then called for a show of hands, which was declared to be in favour of Mr. Fitzgerald.

Mr. BOWMAN then demanded a poll, on which the Returning Officer notified that the same would take place on Tuesday, the 1st proximo, and stating the various localities where it would be held.

Three cheers were then given for the Returning Officer; and subsequently, after a complimentary speech from Mr. Lawson on service to the district whilst Police Magistrate of Windsor, and three cheers more were heartily shouted for Mr. North.

MR. FITZGERALD.

We have authority from the above gentleman to state that he is in the slightest manner authorized his being brought forward as a candidate for the representation of the Cumberland Boroughs.

THE NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE REPRESENTATION OF THE UNITED COUNTIES OF GLOUCESTER, MACQUARIE, AND STANLEY.

CAPTAIN KING took his seat as returning officer, at the court-house, Raymond Terrace, at 12 o'clock on Tuesday, the 24th inst., upon the parties assembled to proceed with the business of the day.

Mr. BURNETT proposed Mr. Archibald Boyd as a candidate and proposed to represent the electoral district. He considered their birth and education, and from his influence in England, he was eminently fitted for the position to which he aspired, and spoke at some length upon the advantages the country would derive through services such as Mr. Boyd was so competent to render to that district, and the colony in general.

Lieutenant CRAWFORD, R.N., said, that although the purpose of the meeting was to elect a member to be nominated among gentlemen, yet he should have pleasure now in seconding Mr. Boyd's nomination. In consequence of no one having officially made known his intention of standing for the county, he has some other friends, has written to Mr. Charles Lowe, of Sydney, to present himself for the purpose of being put in nomination. Mr. C. Lowe had so far responded to the wishes expressed, as to have arrived and taken the oath of qualification, but finding that letters had reached the district from the immediate relatives of Mr. A. Boyd, and that preparation was made to nominate him, Mr. Lowe had declined to allow himself to be put in nomination. He then called his (Lieutenant Crawford's) opinion, judging from the small number of electors then present, that Mr. Lowe was hardly a fair chance of success; still as he himself declined, Mr. Crawford thought the best use he could then make of his vote, would be to present it to Mr. Boyd, although on certain points he differed strongly with that gentleman.

Major REYNOLDS begged to present to the electors a brave and gallant officer who had fought his country's battles with distinguished success, one with whom he had served many a hard day and night. He was prepared to support him in the field. As a member for the electoral district in which he now resided, his neighbour Colonel Snodgrass had lived for many years amongst them, and that was his chief recommendation; all he would therefore add was, that the gallant Colonel, elected as he had, might appreciate the honour, and that they might be assured on their part they would have occasion to be highly proud of him. The joint endorsement of the Colonel and himself in the field was

Captain Kinko was attended with success, and if the electors would, usually come forward to support him; they were told, "the flank of the enemy on the present occasion." (Cheers.)
Captain Kinko enquired who seconded Major Russell's nomination.
On the subject of the election, of Raymond Terrace, replied that he did.
Mr. CHARLES LOWE enquired of the Returning Officer if it would be in order if he were allowed to explain why he was before the electors.
Captain Kinko requested he would do so.
Mr. CHARLES LOWE said, it seemed to him that some explanation was due from him to the meeting, on account of the introduction to the proceedings of the day. He had felt it a matter of respect to the gallant gentleman on his left to answer, and to thank him and other friends in person for the distinction they had proposed—(cheers). He was very much surprised and surprised it; and however much he might be disposed (with their assistance) to contend for it, against Colonel Snodgrass and his gallant supporters, yet it was one he must relinquish on finding that the electors had decided. It was due to that gentleman to admit that his individual interests in connexion with the counties were not so important; that in respect of fortune; on the contrary, he was richly provided with money and also in point of industry and assiduous habits, he was entitled to a more favourable position than one who could offer them only poor service as he could tender, which, however, he himself, must be strictly metropolitan. Mr. Boyd's, he believed, could be personally rendered both in the district and in the capital. As a member, therefore, that those with whom he had consulted previously, and to whom he would agree with him that he would lose sight of propriety did he put the electors to the trouble of a poll on his behalf under the circumstances, at a future opportunity. At the same time, as an elector, he thought he had better declare his views, and test them by open discussion; and he would add, that it was equally opposed to a right exercise of the deliberative powers of an entire constituency, that a few persons composed themselves to decide upon the whole electoral district should take upon themselves to dictate the return of a member for the three counties.
Mr. HICKS, on behalf of Mr. Boyd, begged to reply to Mr. Lowe's observations. Mr. Archibald Boyd would have been present, had he not been bar-bound in the Clarence River with several other gentlemen equally occupied in the same way, and with respect to Mr. Boyd's services, it would bold him in the districts as well be in his place in the Council. He was also desirous to prevent a mistake, that it was among Mr. Boyd: it was Mr. Boyd, who was coming from Newcastle, and Colonel Snodgrass said, he had no habit to make long speeches. He should not remark upon the acts of others, but content himself with reminding the electors that he had lived in the colony since its settlement, and held filled official posts in the executive government, and had been also before them in the Legislative Councils of the colony. He would, therefore, appeal to his acts in those capacities, and to his long residence here, as evidence of his worthiness to be elected a member of a neighbour. If he were elected he pledged himself to be in his place in the Council whenever the interests of the colony required it.
Captain Kinko begged to see hands. In favour of Mr. A. Boyd about eight electors held up their hands; of Colonel Snodgrass, about twenty.
Captain Kinko declared the show of hands to be in favour of Mr. Archibald Boyd, and on behalf of Mr. Boyd was then demanded.
The RETURNING OFFICER then stated his intention to apply to the executive for an enlargement of the time for the return of the writ, but that though all parties might have been prepared to go to the poll on the 2nd of August.

COUNTIES OF COOK AND WESTMORELAND.
The nomination of a member for this Electoral District took place at Hartley, on Tuesday last, between Mr. Cheeke and Mr. Martin. The result was declared in favour of Mr. Martin. Mr. Cheeke then demanded a poll.

NOMINATION FOR NORTHERNBERLAND.
(From Yesterday's Maitland Mercury.)
YESTERDAY being the nomination day for the county of Northernberland, about a hundred and fifty persons, half of whom assembled in front of the hustings, erected close to the Court-house, East Maitland. The proceedings ran to a great length, and for want of room to report them very briefly, particularly the speeches of the competitors, we shall confine ourselves to the fact, that about 300 persons were present.
Mr. E. C. CROSS, the returning officer, said that he was closed there for an important duty, to elect the representatives of the county of Northernberland in the Legislative Council, a duty too serious to be trifled with, particularly at the present time. He would read to the electors a list of names, and desired every member to be elected for the county, and begged to observe "that throughout the proceedings he thought it would be best to allow none but electors to speak, which might easily be managed by putting any questions through the electors. He should now be happy to hear any candidate proposed."
Mr. PORTER said he had much pleasure in proposing Mr. Henry Dangar as a fit and proper person to represent the county in the Legislative Council. He was aware there was another candidate who had been canvassing, but having weighed their merits, he had come to the conclusion that Mr. Dangar was the most eligible person to represent the county, nor had he any stake in it, claim on the electors. Mr. Dangar, on the contrary, was a resident in the county, had a large stake in it, and having already represented the county, he was entitled to the benefit of the suffrages. The late Council had been eminent for ability and intellectual power, and it spoke well for Mr. Dangar that he had been able to represent their interests in it so well. Mr. Dangar was a man of high standing, supported by his position as a flockowner, and by the underraking he had just started at Newcastle, which would tend materially to develop the resources of the district if successful. Mr. Dangar was a man of high standing, a successful man, and surely this was an argument in his favour, instead of being an objection. Mr. Dangar had been accused of being a large squatter, and of wishing to monopolize the whole of the crown lands of the colony; now it must be remembered that the land regulations emanated from the home government, and that each station was considered to be a small one, and as would support 4000 sheep, the whole of the crown lands of the colony must be paid annually, and about £8000 s. as assessment, the man who held 30,000 sheep would have to pay for seven or eight stations, or about £75 for licenses alone. It was said Mr. Dangar had more land than he could possibly cover with his flocks; but it was reasonable that he would pay licenses for lands that he could not possibly use; and he hoped that the electors would be trying, if the commissioners did their duty. It was said that the large squatters ought to be put down, and they put down the men whose energy and industry made them successful. Mr. Dangar was a man of high standing in the colony, merely because of their success. Surely such men were the ones they wanted. (Heer.) Supposing immigration were kept up, there would soon be abundance of labour, and an influx of immigrants with capital; but they deny to old colonists the fair play they would extend to strangers? The thing is preposterous. It seemed to him that a man who had spent his life in the colony, and who whether squatter or otherwise, was the man for them, not one who had been unsuccessful and was regarded with embarrasments. Mr. Dangar would explain to them his view regarding the colonies, and he was proud they were giving their consent to bring forward.

Mr. J. REED seconded the nomination. He had known Mr. Dangar twenty-five years, and that portion by which two or three magistrates were in their power to run a man by arbitrarily. Mr. Vallack said he was surprised to find he had gone to great expense in building a house. It too many public-houses should then be opened in a town, the evil would cure itself; for those must some of them be abandoned from the neighbourhood. There was another important subject: the government had issued a regulation giving owners of land within the boundaries the prospective right of taking three adjoining sections of their public lands as they pleased; while, if a person who owned no land, or less than a section, wanted to lease land, he was obliged to compete for it at auction, the price being 2½ per section. This was highly unjust to the poor people, and opposed to the regulation, but unfortunately the matter rested with the executive government, and the Legislative Council could only advise against it. His proposer and second had expressed confidence that the electors could best judge what weight was to be attached to their recommendation. In regard to his opponents, he must express his opinion that they were not of a more formidable character (laughter), and that he felt confident he could beat them ("You have not done it yet.") He hoped to beat both well.

[illegible]

When he first saw Mr. Vallack's address in the morning paper, he thought it must be started mainly on the principle of abuse of the large squatters; they seemed to be his dire enemies; or was it that abuse of their privileges? He felt sure that the Legislative Council for himself. He felt sure that the electors would not bear him out in this notion. Mr. Vallack spoke of princely squatters, and their monopoly of the land; now he would turn round and say that the same country was in the hands of any squatter at all directing the name of principalities, nor was there any monopoly. Mr. Vallack had never seen a squattering district; he did not know if they were so numerous as he supposed, or if he liked them; and was such a man to come forward and ask them for their suffrages? How could he form a judgment of laws affecting land beyond the boundaries (noise). They all knew the situation of the land before it was put up for sale, and was clamouring for a settlement of the squattering question. That settlement had been effected, and a pre-emptive right granted after having been asked for by the Government, and the Government had not abused for giving what he had asked for; or that the squatters should be assumed for merely asking what was offered to them. Mr. Vallack said he would like to see the large squatters, that he thought the small settlers entitled to some consideration. Now he (Mr. D.) was what Mr. Vallack he supposed would be a middling squatter, neither large nor small; and he would like to see the large squatters followed out his pursuits with energy and success he was for that reason to be attacked, merely because he had been successful. The fact was that the large squatters had no advantages the small squatters had. It was impossible that a squatter could succeed if he was cramped up in his run; and he would maintain that, looking at the nature of the situation of the land beyond the boundaries, and the fact that the land was put up for grazing purposes, and must be thus turned to account, or the colony would suffer. It was of great importance to the colony that those lands should be put up in quantities large enough for success. If he held a section of land, he would be of course paid for five stations. Now suppose for a moment that his squattages were divided among seven or eight persons, those persons would be compelled to employ no more labour than he now did, as he would not do it, as he did not do as much good to the colony as the seven or eight could. Mr. Vallack wished to see a solvent landed proprietary, he said, in the colony, and he would like to see a very fine one, and might be feasible enough if the land were near navigable rivers, but they were unfortunately 300 or 400 miles away from navigable rivers, and could only be turned to advantage for stock raising. A squatter was a profitable a monopoly, how was it possible that any like could go and become squatters so few did so? When he voted for the introduction of exiles he did so because they were necessary to the colony, and for other reasons, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr. Garven urged that he had foregone the advantages in former years from the disadvantages pointed out. During the latter part of Mr. Dangar's speech the noise and hootings increased.

Mr. Vallack then rose forward, and received with cheers. He said Mr. Dangar had touched on many topics, but had not brought any one to a satisfactory conclusion. On the squattering question Mr. Dangar's views were altogether different from his interests, and because there was then such a want of labour; but he was not bound to favour their introduction always, from having then voted against them; and the fact of a steady stream of immigrants coming into the colony was a circumstance of the case materially. It was not true that he wanted cheap labour at any price (noise); he wished merely to have a moderate price as to afford him a moderate profit on his capital (noise).

(Hear, hear, and confusion.)

Mr. D. then proceeded to dispute Mr. Vallack's personal claims, during which there was much noise; and Mr. D. also in reply to Mr.

but he regretted that Mr. Danger should have induced him to prevent any but electors speaking in No. 7 from Mr. Danger: "You are not a member of the Council," said Mr. Danger. "Your principal reason for objecting to Mr. Danger is that he was a member of the late Council, and that it was now their interest to have in as few members of the late Council as possible; for the late Council were the cause of the injurious to the best interests of the colony." "What would they do if the squatters were removed or ruined? Why, become squatters themselves (cheers). If the squatters ceased operations," said Mr. Danger, "the colony would still be in the colony, only they would be distributed among the people instead of being confined to a few (cheers). Mr. Danger said he was not guilty of being for cheap labour; now, was he not guilty of being against it? Would a poor man have had the audacity to come forward with such a statement? (Cheers.) What was his object in seeking to be returned? It was to put in forward his own selfish interest. What could Mr. Danger do if the people would so he put money in his pocket? (Cheers.) The shops and inns might now be said to be supported principally by the expenditure of the wages paid by the squatters. Now, if the squatters were removed, the wages would not be in money, but with the stripes and triangles (cheers)—what would become of the business of these establishments? If Mr. Danger had expended £2000 in wages yearly, he would have said those things. Mr. Exileism was in fact connected with every question. Did they wish to see an extension of the franchise, to have universal suffrage, which would soon be the law in England, the fact that if the people were placed to which exiles were sent would be an argument against granting the boon. Did they wish to see an equitable distribution of the property of the colony? Would they get it till the working men were repressed, and the poor never would be while the squatters were undertaking to reform the criminals of the British empire. Reform, ay, with the stripes and triangles (cheers). Would they wish to see their neighbour's men (cheers). The introduction of exiles would directly interfere with the wages of working men; a moderate supply of immigration would not, because on the one hand many of the exiles would become employers themselves, while on the other they would be an accidental over-supply, they would write home to their friends, and the stream would be stopped for awhile; exileism, on the contrary, would be a perpetual empuiser, and when the price of labour had been reduced, the stream still continuing, wages must go down more and more (cheers). Why should not land be as free to be obtained here by the poor as it is in the United States of America? States, where a man could sink down on uncultivated land, and cultivate it, and he then had a pre-emptive right to buy it. This would make the country worth coming to. The squatters would not be able to pay the price of the land to pay in giving men £20 a year, but he would relate to the meeting the disclosures as to the prices charged for supplies by squatters at stations, which he had obtained from Mr. Danger, and the friends, and Mr. Danger would deny that those prices, and even higher, were charged. (Cheers.) Let the squatters tell him of any one station that was not paying, and he would undertake to prove on the spot that it was not paying, and that was the cause of it. (Cheers.) Mr. Danger said now that he thought the pre-emptive clause enabling the owner of a section within the boundaries to claim three adjoining ones on the same day was a bad one, and that he should never have said so before. Why did he not denounce it in Council? But the fact was that Mr. Danger was anxious to get in again, and knowing the regulation was very popular, he was not prepared to be so opposed to it. (Mr. Harper then passed an eulogium on Mr. Vallack, as holding contrary opinions to Mr. Danger, and concluded by proposing, that, although he was proud to have known Mr. Danger, and that he would retire, not having the necessary qualification, and he recommended Mr. Vallack as the representative for the county.)

THE HON. ASSISTANT SECRETARY then called for a show of hands in favour of Mr. Vallack, and declared the show to be in favour of Mr. Vallack.

MR. DANGER announced a poll, and Mr. DANGER then appointed Monday next as the day for polling, and took occasion to remark that Mr. Harper was mistaken as to his decision, that only electors should speak, having been influenced by Mr. Danger, inas-much as he had been on the previous day, in open court, at which time he had not seen Mr. Danger.

The meeting then broke up. A very few hands were held up for Mr. Danger, and these were the only hands, while for Mr. Vallack nearly all the people present held up their hands.

ELECTION FOR DURHAM.
(From yesterday's Midland Mercury.)

YESTERDAY being the day of nomination for the county of Durham, a large number of fifty persons collected round the hustings at the Paterson, to hear the proceedings. About a quarter before one Major Johnstone, the Returning Officer, accompanied by the candidates, and twelve friends, appeared on the hustings. We are sorry that, owing to the space occupied by the election proceedings elsewhere, we have not sufficient room for more than a brief notice of the proceedings.

The business commenced by the RETURNING OFFICER reading the writ, this being done by Mr. BOYDELL begged to propose Stuart Alexander Donaldson, Esq., as a fit and proper person to represent them in Council. He was aware that Mr. Donaldson had no legal duty during the late short but eventful session of Council, and he was sure that no member had attended with more zeal and energy to his duty than Mr. Donaldson had done. He was sorry to say that, owing to the illness arisen relative to the exile question; but he felt convinced that Mr. Donaldson had in this respect voted conscientiously, as without any other motive, could not flourish. He knew Mr. Donaldson was a man who would be an exile. He, for his own part, would rather be his own servant than employ one (hear, hear). A great deal had been said about the squatters; and they were their best friends. Did they not employ a great deal of money, and was their money amongst us? On the land question, too, Mr. Donaldson was an advocate for a reduction in the high price at present charged for the land, and he was very much in favour of one who proposed Mr. S. Donaldson to represent them for the county of Durham (cheers and uproar).

Mr. W. SCOTT seconded the nomination. He said that he felt much pleasure in doing so, as he was sure that Mr. Donaldson had done his best for the good of the colony, and the land question Mr. D. had done his best to cause a reduction in the price, so that the poor man would have a chance of purchasing his land, and they were thick one. There had been a great cry about the squatters, and he would turn out so bad perhaps as had been represented. The ticket-of-leavemen of the present day were as good as a class of men as any others, and he was sure that many of them had been driven to crime by the want of a home. A meeting had been held at home for the purpose of finding out the best means of affording relief to the starving population, when the price of the land was so high. The small quantity of Cayenne pepper mixed up with a large quantity of water would satisfy men's stomachs for some time. Some people had objected to Sydney men for representatives, but he thought they were the best men for the colony, and he tended to their duties; some had occasionally attended, and others, as soon as the novelty had worn off, had not attended at all. Mr. Donaldson had always attended at his post, and he was sure that he would do so at the house. He begged therefore to second the nomination of Mr. Donaldson.

Mr. DONALDSON then came forward and said, that he had again come forward as a candidate, and he was sure that he would do his short career he had been constantly at his post. He had been an advocate for civil and religious liberty. He had given a pledge, and he had kept it; he had said that what he could do for the colony he would do, and he had been a grant for a bridge built over Tocal Creek, and money voted for a court house at Muswellbrook, besides other grants. He would now show them his votes on public questions, and he was sure that he would not be attended to his public duty. (Mr. D. then read a list of his votes, and he was sure that he would do his duty.)

Donaldson then described in what manner he had recorded his votes;—He was an advocate for cheap land, and in the Council had made an amendment to Mr. Lowe's motion, to the effect that the land of the colony should not be sold for more than the value of the land. Cheap land we had cheap labour the colony must flourish. He had an interest in the colony. He was a squatter; and he did not do anything inconsistent with theirs. He hoped that it would soon be made good and happy to do it again. He had done and he was happy to do it again. He had himself personally asked them for their votes, and he felt convinced that they would elect him again. He had but just discovered that Mr. A. Lang had been elected. He would not be surprised if they started in opposition to him; but he hoped that they were not to be caught napping. He thanked them for giving him such a patient hearing, and he would be most proud to be elected to the Executive. (Loud cheering. — Donaldson for ever.)

Mr. ALEXANDER PARK begged to propose Mr. Andrew Lang as a fit and proper person to represent the County of Darhnam in Council. He knew Mr. Donaldson well, and he had known him for many years, and he could speak of him in the highest terms. The electors were not to be led away by fine speeches and promises; they were not to be considered as children. He could plainly see that Mr. Donaldson was not a squatter, the balance and found wanting. Mr. Donaldson's political career had been anything but satisfactory. He voted for the introduction of the bill to restrict the land of the squatters, and he had been elected to the Council. He was a man of high character, and he would be a great asset to the colony. He was a man of high character, and he would be a great asset to the colony. He was a man of high character, and he would be a great asset to the colony.

Mr. GIBBS seconded the nomination of Mr. Lang.

Mr. ANDREW LANG said, that he had no intention of coming forward as a candidate for the County of Durham until he was crossing the punt that morning; indeed he had intended to propose Mr. Park, but had been taken by surprise. He could not agree that residents of the county could not attend to their business in the morning, and he was going to Sydney for that express purpose, while the Sydney merchant had his business in Sydney to attend to. He was decidedly averse to the bringing out of exiles to this colony; but he would not object to the bringing out of a considerable time, but, owing to the state of the hustings, we could not catch the whole of his remarks.

Mr. DONALDSON having again addressed the meeting.

THE RETURNING OFFICER called for a show of hands, and declared it in favour of Mr. Donaldson.

Mr. ANDREW LANG then demanded a poll; but the voters of the county, by electing Mr. Donaldson, had declared their preference for the Returning Officer had neglected to post up the usual notices, or appoint deputies at the other polling places.

THE RETURNING OFFICER then stated that owing to the illness of Mr. Donaldson, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.

(From the South Australian Gazette.)

Name of Mine or Co. Shares.	Capital.	Paid up.	Price.
Burns Burns.	2464	1000	200
Barroes Royal.	400	25,000	10,000
Adelaide.	2000	10,000	10,000
Adelaide.	400	10,000	10,000
Royal Mining Company.	10,000	100,000	100
Enterprise.	1000	3000	10
Montacute.	100	5300	50
Adelaide.	100	5300	50
Parings.	100	5300	50

JOHN RICHARDSON, Share Broker.

Adelaide, July 14, 1866.

INSOLVENCY COURT.—The following meetings are fixed for to-day. In the estate of Michael Higgins, a special dividend except Mr. Donaldson making his appearance till the last moment, he had neglected to appoint deputies, &c.; and, as Mr. Donaldson had obtained a show of hands, he must declare him duly elected.

The announcement was received with much cheering. The meeting then separated.

DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

ADELAIDE MINING SHARE LIST.</

EXTRAORDINARY ROBBERY.—Five men named William Kettley, John Jones, Robert Hills, Patrick Carr, and Nicholas Carr, on Tuesday brought before the Police Court charged with being implicated in robbing Messrs. Rowand, Kennab, and Co., of Pitt-street, would give evidence in support of a system of plunder has been for a length of time past carried out on Messrs. Rowand and Co., but from the manner in which it is believed to have been effected, and the fact that the prisoners' own store affords for goods being removed, and their loss not being immediately discovered, it was not until lately any suspicion arose of the robbery having been committed, and it then became a matter of some difficulty to acquire even such information as would lead to the discovery as to whom these suspicious would be attachable. Inspector Burrows was first communicated with and put in motion, he then got the prisoners and carefully and perseveringly following out, the five prisoners were taken into custody, under circumstances detailed in the evidence of the case before the court, which, although rather lengthy, affords a good history of the affair. From the Inspector's statement it appeared that on the previous Monday morning he approached the house of Messrs. Rowand and Co., in the street, and confined that person for stealing, and his brother Nicholas for being an accessory, a quantity of drapery goods from Messrs. Rowand and Co., which had been in company with Mr. Drynan, Messrs. Rowand and Co.'s salesman, to the house of the purpose of executing a warrant against the person to the writing being put in force. Kettley was asked if he had, shortly before last Christmas, purchased any goods from the prisoner Jones, to which he replied merely a few yards of calico. On the search being made, a piece of calico, some one, and which was identified by Mr. Drynan as stolen from the store, was a roll of brown holland, which stolen then suddenly appeared as the calico, and of the same time as the calico, and a piece of white, 10½d. per yard for. On the search being continued, a piece of drill, two rolls of muslin, one white and the other brown, a pair of drawers, which had been stolen, and Kettley accounted for his possession of them, saying the drill had been given him in the way of his business, as a tailor, to make two pair of drawers from, by a man who had gone to the Drapers' Hall, and the muslin, in the way of the roll of white at Newton's, in Pitt-street, and that of brown from a draper. A chest of drawers in the room being overhauled, Mr. Drynan identified a second piece of drill, two shawls, and a pair of drawers, which were property. Kettley's account of these articles was, that they belonged to a woman of the name of Harriet Kent, and he had advanced money on them, and stating he had a box belonging to her, and the contents of which Mr. Drynan and Burrows, and showed it them, when the former selected from its contents additional stolen goods, being three gowns, two pieces of muslin, and a piece of chequered muslin. Kettley claimed the box in the apartment, which Kettley claimed as his; but on its being opened, and two prints and a white chequered muslin dress and a white shawl being claimed, he stated them to belong to his wife, and the person in the person then presently came in, when he stated the articles to be his wife's, to whom they had been given by the female Kent. Recourse was then taken to the box, which was found under commitment as an accessory in the base coin, and she, in her turn, accounted for her possession of the articles by having received them from the prisoner Jones, who keeps a shop in the street of the Drapers' Hall, and went to Jones, and the first object that attracted the latter's notice was the coat worn by Jones, having been stolen from Messrs. Rowand and Co., and the fact that he had both the coat and its wearer in charge, and in searching the house, two more stolen shawls were found. The possession of these articles Jones claimed through buying them in Pitt-street, and the search being made, and a similar assertion to which they had previously made in reference to Jones. Jones, however, claimed to have had dealings with Messrs. Rowand and Co., and the search being made, a file, dated March, 1847, in support of his statement, and said he also bought a quantity of white shirts from them. The fifth prisoner, Burrows, was taken into custody by the police, and the search being made, and the search in assisting Jones in bringing goods away from Rowand and Co.'s. The prisoners remain in custody.

PORT PHILL REVENUE.—The quarterly statement of the revenue of the district of Port Phillip, was published in Tuesday's Gazette. The total amount of the ordinary revenue was £23,349, an increase on the corresponding quarter of £4860. The principal items of increase were the duties on spirits, and public-house licenses. The crown land revenue amounted to £2800, a decrease of £1280. The gross amount of both revenues was £26,167, and the gross increase £3949.

ROCKING CHAIRS.—The consecration of the Rev. Dr. Taylor, in connection for Port Phillip, took place in St. Mary's Church, on Sunday week, the 6th of August. The Right Rev. Dr. Murphy has arrived at Port Phillip on Tuesday at ceremony.

POLICE OFFICE.—The Mayor presented on Tuesday evening the Mayor, Captain Ingham, Mr. Dawes, who was on the roster. Mr. J. Campbell, the second magistrate summoned, did not attend. In the second Court, Captain Ingham, the second magistrate, and Mr. Allen attended, for the purpose of administering the oath to special constables, when 64 were sworn in.

SHAWL.—A shoemaker named William Taylor, residing in the house of Mr. Barry Hills, was on Sunday afternoon taken into charge by Police Constable Proctor, on a charge of entering the house of a person named Hills, in the above street, and stealing therefrom a quantity of goods, and wearing apparel. The evidence adduced in support of the case was purely of a circumstantial nature. That given on Monday, when Taylor was brought before the Bench, was to the following effect:—Taylor had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, a grocer, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his wife saw the back door open, but no notice was taken, as the prisoner, whose residence it seemed to be, was about to move off, and was supposed to be moving his goods into the house, and going to the house on the following (Sunday) morning he found the back door merely on the latch, the prisoner not moved, and the box was seen locked by Mr. Chandler, who lived in the street which Chandler had vacated, but had left in an upper apartment a box which contained the stolen property. At about 4 o'clock the night the prisoner's apprentice came and saw the box, and the prisoner, stating his master was about to move into the house, and that he was the prosecutor's brother and his

This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. On the right side, there is a dark, textured vertical band, likely representing the binding or the edge of the paper. The rest of the strip is a lighter, off-white color, which appears to be the main body of the page. There are some faint, dark specks and a small, dark smudge visible on the lighter area, possibly due to dust or scanning artifacts. No text or other graphical elements are discernible.

Supplement TO THE SYDNEY MORNING HERALD.

THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1848.

CITY OF SYDNEY TO VIT.

CITY ELECTION.
JOSHUA FREY JOSEPHSON,
Esquire, Mayor of the City of Sydney, and Returning Officer of the Electoral District of the City of Sydney, do hereby give notice, that in the event of a poll being demanded by,
or on the part of any Candidate, at the Nomination of Members to serve in the Legislative Council for the City aforesaid, This Day, the 27th day of July, instant, the polling at the different Wards will commence at the undermentioned places, on Friday, the 28th day of the said month of July, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and will finally close at four o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

GIPPS WARD.
A Booth near the Flag Staff, Fort Phillip.
BOURKE WARD.
A Booth in Macquarie-place.
BRISBANE WARD.
The letter "A" of the George Street Markets.
MACQUARIE WARD.
A Booth in Hyde Park.
COOK WARD.
The Criminal Court House, Darlinghurst.
PHILLIP WARD.
The Market House, Corn Market.

Each of the above named Polling Places, for the convenience of Electors, will be divided into two compartments, marked "No. 1," and "No. 2," respectively.

Electors whose surnames commence with any Letter of the Alphabet from A to M, both inclusive, will tender their voting papers at the compartment marked "No. 1," and
And Electors whose surnames commence with any Letter of the Alphabet from N to Z, both inclusive, will tender their voting papers at the compartment marked "No. 2."

Persons voting will accordingly hand in their voting papers at the compartments of the Polling Places in the respective Wards where their property is situated, in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

JOSHUA FREY JOSEPHSON,
Mayor.
By order of the Right Worshipful the Mayor, JOHN RAE,
Town Clerk.

MR. LOWE'S ELECTION.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF SYDNEY.

GENTLEMEN,—For the first time since you have possessed the elective franchise you are called upon to discharge the sacred trust reposed in you, apart from all selfish and corrupting influences, with the sole aim of benefiting our common country. You are called upon to elect a man for your representative in the Legislative Council, without being seduced by any personal influence of his or of his friends; and in his election, to carry out the triumph of great and righteous principles. And, with all reverence, we add, you are destined to be the glorious instruments of that retributive justice which ever overtakes the guilty.

We who now ask you to send a man into Council, who shall be the unanimous and unbiased choice of the people, are too proud in our strength, and too earnest in our single purpose, to do more than look down with a feeling of pity on our opponents. You need us not to point out the misdeeds of the late members for Sydney; the memory of wrongs is as a living coal in the breasts of freemen.
Brother Electors! we ask you to vote for Mr. Lowe because we believe he will strenuously endeavour to enlarge the elective franchise; to vote for him because we believe he will zealously advocate the cause of education; for him because we believe he will be the successful advocate of an equitable alienation of the public lands, and an economical expenditure of the public money. In short, we ask you to vote for Mr. Lowe because we in our hearts believe he will be the ablest defender, and most incorruptible promoter of our common rights and liberties, not being bound by any predilections of self-interest.

Electors and Freemen! You have been told that Mr. Lowe will not take his seat for Sydney if elected. This is not true; here are Mr. Lowe's own words:—

"In answer to a question from you, whether I would sit for the City if elected, I respond: 'YES.' I could not so far insult the citizens of Sydney as to refuse."

"Your's, very truly,
"ROBERT LOWE."

"Half-past four, July 7."

From another letter of Mr. Lowe's to the Committee for whom we set we would quote a passage which shows that he is identified with the great principle of purity of election whereon we shall take our stand in the forthcoming contest. Mr. Lowe says:—

"Opposed as I am on principle to the system so prevalent in the mother country of selling seats in the Legislature to the highest bidder, it gives me great pleasure to observe that the citizens of Sydney are entirely free from this contamination; and that they do not consider a LAVISH EXPENDITURE OF HIS OWN OR
THE PUBLIC MONEY AS AN RECOMMENDATION TO A CANDIDATE OR A REPRESENTATIVE."

Electors! Rally in the might and majesty of our indestructible principles! Our motto is "The greatest happiness to the greatest number." Let our triumph be worthy of our cause.
J. K. HAYDON, Joint Secretaries,
HENRY PARKES, Joint Secretaries,
Central Committee Rooms,
July 7, 1848.

LOWE AND LIBERTY!!!

ELECTORS OF SYDNEY,
ROBERT LOWE, ESQ., IS THE MAN FOR YOUR SUFFRAGES!

You who have been taught that "Taxation without Representation is tyranny," vote for
LOWE AND AN EXTENSION OF THE FRANCHISE!

You who desire to see your children grow in knowledge and virtue, vote for LOWE AND EDUCATION!

You who wish economy in the public expenditure, vote for LOWE AND RETRENCH-MENT!

You who want no slave class of Coolies and Cannibals, vote for LOWE AND BRITISH IMMIGRATION!

You who hope for a prosperous rural people to supplant a corrupt and alien squatterary, vote for LOWE AND A FAIR ADJUST-MENT OF THE LAND QUESTION! 1847

PURITY OF ELECTION.

The political friends of Mr. Robert Lowe, and all who appreciate the principle involved in the Free Election of members of the Legislature, are respectfully solicited to forward their subscriptions towards the expenses incurred in carrying on Mr.
Lowe's election for Sydney, to any one of the undersigned:—

Mr. Alderman Walshe, Chairman of Committee
Mr. W. Coleman, 453, George-street, Treasurer
Messrs. J. K. Heydon, King-street } Secretaries,
And
Henry Parkes, Hunter-street }
Mr. Robert Stewart, cabinet maker, Pitt-street
Mr. Richard Peck, 452, George-street
Mr. Edward M'Kinnon, 341, George-street
Mr. B. Simms, watchmaker, Parramatta-street
Mr. Charles Appleton, Fort-street
D. M. Aaron, surgeon, 252, Pitt-street

The surplus, if any, will be equally divided between the Infirmary and the Benevolent Asylum.

By order of the Committee conducting Mr.
Lowe's election,
J. K. HAYDON, Joint
HENRY PARKES, Secretaries,
Committee Rooms,
July 25, 1848

MESSRS. WENTWORTH AND BLAND.

THE Central Committee will meet at their Rooms, Pitt Roy Hotel, This Evening, Thursday, at seven o'clock.
Members of Ward Committees are particularly requested to attend.

By order of the Committee,
J. C. WHITE, Secretary,
Committee Rooms, July 27, 1848

TO THE ELECTORS OF SYDNEY.

GENTLEMEN,—Having, at the request of a numerous and respectable body of citizens, become a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election, I deem it my duty to lay before you my sentiments on some important subjects.

Believing that governments are instituted for the benefit of the people, I am of opinion that they should be as little costly as is compatible with efficiency; and that it is therefore the bounden duty of a legislature carefully to scrutinize and control the expenditure, in every branch of the public service.

Education being a subject which is now exciting attention in every civilized community, I think it right to declare that I am not prejudiced in favour of any particular form.
It appears to me that a system which may be adapted to one locality may be utterly unsuited to another, and therefore that the wishes of the people more immediately interested should,
in every case, where practicable, be consulted.

The extraordinary concessions lately made to the squatters, render a satisfactory adjustment of the questions affecting the sale of the waste lands more difficult than ever;
yet I do not suppose it possible that a system based on the absurd theory that these lands are worth a pound an acre, can long stand. But,
by the social evils which would arise were such
a system re-introduced into the colony.

With unfeigned humility I admit that there are amongst you many who by talent
and education are more fitted than I am to discharge the important duties which devolve
on your representative, but at the same time I will fearlessly assert that none could be sent into the Council with a more earnest purpose to discharge honestly and diligently those duties, than

Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN LAMB.

CITY ELECTION.

TO THE COMMITTEES WHO HAVE BEEN APPOINTED TO TAKE MEASURES FOR MY RETURN.

GENTLEMEN,—In answer to a question from you "Whether I would sit for the City if elected?" I repeat "Yes."
I could not so far insult the citizens of Sydney as to refuse.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT LOWE.
Half-past four, July 7.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF SYDNEY.

GENTLEMEN,—I regret that severe indisposition, as well as the shortness of time previous to the election, has prevented me paying my personal respects to every Elector in the City of Sydney. I beg, however, to return my sincere thanks to the citizens for the numerous promises of support given to my Committee, and trust that my friends will be early at the poll on Friday next, to record their votes in my favour.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN LAMB.

LAMB FOR THE CITY.

THE WARD COMMITTEES for conducting the election of MR. LAMB

will meet THIS EVENING at the undermentioned places, at seven o'clock, and invite the attendance of the friends of that gentleman:—
Brisbane—Entwistle's, York-street
Macquarie—Wulke's, George-street South
Gipps—Hooper's, George-street North
Cook—Terrace Inn, South Head Road
Bourke—Skinner's, George and Hunter-streets
Phillip—Gray's, Sussex-street.

Secretaries will be in constant attendance at the above mentioned places to afford every information to the electors, as also at the Central Committee Rooms

ROBERT PORTER,
Honorary Secretary.

CUMBERLAND ELECTION.

Parramatta, 22nd July, 1848.
GENTLEMEN,—As one of the supporters of Mr. Nelson Lawson, I feel it my duty to forward you a letter I have received from Mr. Charles Cooper, and as I wish to debate the public mind of any coalition existing between Mr. Smith and himself, I shall feel obliged by your publishing it.

I shall feel obliged by your publishing this letter and it
I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
HUGH TAYLOR, JUN.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN,—Seeing in to-day's Herald the copy of an old advertisement, in which the names of Broad and Lawson are conspicuously brought forward, I would beg you to understand that it has been inserted unknown to me; and further, that I will in no way lend myself to any personalities in the approaching election.

I would rather that my return be secured by the publication of what I am, than from any attempt being made to disparage an opponent.

My friends and supporters must be fully aware before this time that my return needs no worth a pound an acre, can long stand. But,
by the social evils which would arise were such
a system re-introduced into the colony.

With unfeigned humility I admit that there are amongst you many who by talent
and education are more fitted than I am to discharge the important duties which devolve
on your representative, but at the same time I
will fearlessly assert that none could be sent into the Council with a more earnest purpose
to discharge honestly and diligently those duties, than

Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
HENRY G. SMITH.

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

MR. H. G. SMITH will meet the Electors resident in and about the undermentioned places, as follows:—
WINDSOOT—At Coffey's Hotel, THIS DAY,
the 27th July, at 12 o'clock noon.
PARRITT—At Mr. Perry's, Rose Inn, on Friday, the 28th July, at 10 o'clock a.m.
LIVERPOOL—On Monday, the 31st July, at 10 a.m.

And will be at CAMPBELLTOWN—On Saturday, the 29th
July.

G. MORANT SIMPSON,
Secretary.

Central Committee Rooms,
White Horse, George-street, July 27, 1848

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

AT a Meeting of the ELECTORS of CUMBERLAND, resident in and about the district of CHIPPENDALE and RED-FERN, held on Tuesday Evening, 24th July at Phillips's, the Chippendale Hotel, William Hindson, Esq., in the Chair.
The Chairman having opened the proceedings of the evening, called upon Mr. Smith to address the meeting.

Moved and seconded—
That this meeting, being desirous of electing approved men for their legislators, do resolve that Henry Gilbert Smith and Charles Cowper, Esquires, are fit and proper persons to represent the County of Cumberland.

Carried unanimously.

Moved and seconded—
That the expression of Mr. Smith's sentiments as now explained by himself, as such as to entitle him to the cordial support of the Electors of the County of Cumberland.

Carried.

Moved and seconded—
That the following Gentlemen do form themselves into Committee, for the purpose of canvassing this portion of the Police District of the County, and for using every possible means to secure the return of Messrs. Cowper and Smith for the County.

Mr. W. Hindson
" R. Tooth
" G. H. Hirst
" George Watson
" Perkins
" Taylor
" John Walker
" James Arthur
" Hickson
" E. Thomas
" Phillips.

Moved and seconded—
That Mr. Hindson do now leave the Chair, and that the same be taken by Robert Tooth, Esq.

Moved and seconded—
That the best thanks of this meeting be given to W. Hindson, Esq., for his able conduct in the Chair.

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

AT a MEETING of the Electors of the County of Cumberland, resident in and about the neighbourhood of Paddington, Surry Hills, Waverley, and Darlinghurst, held on Monday Evening, the 24th July, at the Green Gate, Paddington—

Moved by T. W. Smart, Esq.; seconded by Mr. Powell:—
That James Cooper, Esq., do now take the chair.

Carried.

Mr. Smith having been called upon to express to this Meeting his sentiments—

Moved by Robert Lowe, Esq.; seconded by
G. A. Lloyd, Esq.:—

That this meeting, anxious to secure to themselves men worthy of becoming legislators, do resolve that Henry G. Smith and Charles Cowper, Esqs., are fit and proper persons to represent the county of Cumberland.

Carried by acclamation.

Moved by T. W. Cape, Esq.; seconded by T.
W. Smart, Esq.:—

That the sentiments expressed by Mr. Smith before this meeting are such as to entitle him to the cordial support of the Electors of the County.

Carried.

Moved by W. G. McCarthy, Esq.; seconded
by Mr. Barr:—

That the following gentlemen do form themselves into Committee for the purpose of canvassing this portion of the Police District of Sydney, and for using all possible means to secure the return of Messrs. Cowper and Smith for the county of Cumberland.

Mr. James Cooper
Mr. Greenwood
T. W. Cape
Dealy
G. A. Lloyd
Dole
G. W. McCarthy
Ferguson
Morgan
Perce
Hopkinson
Wisean
Barr
Hooper
Pollock
Turnbull
Carter
Dickenson
Bloomsfield
Pat. M'Kenna
T. W. Smith
T. W. Smart
Nixon
G. F. Baker
Fleming
John Lord

With power to add to their number.

Carried.

Moved by Mr. Hopkinson; seconded by Mr.
Pollock:—
That James Cooper, Esq., do now leave the chair, and that it be taken by Robert Lowe, Esq.

Carried.

Mr. Lowe having taken the chair,
Moved by Mr. Dickinson; seconded by Mr.
Carter:—
That the best thanks of this meeting be now given to James Cooper, Esq., for his able and impartial conduct in the chair.

Carried.

After three cheers each for H. G. Smith,
Esq., Charles Cowper, Esq., and Robert Lowe,
Esq., the meeting broke up.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The advertising public are respectfully informed that the proprietors of this journal will not hold themselves responsible for omissions in forwarding advertisements to other newspapers.
Herald Office, July 24.

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

TO NELSON SIMMONS LAWSON, ESQ.
SIR,—We, the undersigned, Electors of the County of Cumberland, beg to request you will allow yourself to be placed in nomination to represent our interests for the above County in the ensuing Legislative Council, and we pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavours to secure your election.

Thomas Forster, J.P.
Hugh Taylor
James Ridop
William Mobbs
Charles Rakefield
Richard Wall
Eliza Stranger
John Hogan
John Forster
Robert Davis
Thomas Pike
Richard Wm. Heard
John Ridley
James Ridley
Francis Medcalf
Robert Goodin
James Galloway
John Hamilton
Samuel Hill
James M. Roberts
Thomas Bell
Robert Fuller
Edward New
James Oakes
James Ryan
John Perry
James Delaney
Thomas Frost
Richard Betts
William Peaseley
George Neale
William Longford
D. Begley
T. Dean
William Fullagar
L. Hyland
John Agelton
John Fullagar
T. P. Fitzsimmons
John Murphy
Richard Webb
R. J. Cross
Wm. Abercrombie
E. Neich
Thomas Stubbs
A. Hayward
Richard Hill
Wm. Roberts
F. Underwood
James Kerwin
James B. Hettington
William Smith
William M. Cue
Richard Donnelly
William Murray
Vincent Howell
Samuel James
Edward Drinkwater
Michael Dowdell
Stephen Pass
Joseph Hutton
Patrick Neville
Joseph Roberts
Thomas Bray
Michael Seale
Thomas Seale
Charles Abercrombie
Henry Denton
Alexander McDonald
William Morgan
Ris. and Morgan
James Parnell
James Byrnes
William Byrnes
E. Fitzgerald
J. Hall
G. Buckridge
— Jones
J. Mulhearn
P. Maloney
M. Mahoney
— Roberts
— Smith
— Wright
O. Freeman
E. Burke
Joseph Kenyon, sen.
J. Smith
James Blackett
J. Goodin
William Best
James Smith
John Lucas, sen.
Henry Wilson
L. Ryan
Joseph Taylor
Wm. Summersfield
John Haily
William Bursill
Charles L. Bayley
William I. Lyon
William Brooker
Michael Byrnes
Edward Burke
C. Dwyer
John Eccleston
William Jones
John Leary
Richard Mead
John Milton
William Prandegast
John Prandegast
John Warby
Benjamin Warby
Thomas Best
John Dale
Edward Fuller

In consequence of the shortness of time previous to the day of nomination, the Committee are unable to attach any names, although upwards of 200 have pledged themselves to support Nelson S. Lawson, Esq.

TO THE GENTLEMEN WHO HAVE SIGNED THE REQUISITION.

GENTLEMEN,—I offer you my sincere thanks for the honour you have conferred on me in requesting that I should allow myself to be put in nomination for the representation of your county.

I feel much pleasure in responding to your wish, and beg to assure you that I shall be ready on all occasions to use my utmost exertions to promote the interests of this important county and the colony at large.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Yours, &c., NELSON S. LAWSON.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN,—Understanding that a requisition is in the course of signature, inviting me to offer myself as a candidate for the representation of the county, I beg to leave to say that I feel myself much honoured by this mark of public confidence, and should a majority of the constituency be pleased to return me as their representative, I beg to assure them that I will use every exertion in my power for the promotion of the interests of this important county and of the colony at large.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient humble servant, NELSON S. LAWSON.

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

ELECTORS OF CHIPPENDALE, BARRY HILLS, REDFERN, AND BUTARY.

MR. N. S. LAWSON will meet the Voters of the above districts, at 8 o'clock, the Hand and Heart, Redfern, on Thursday (This Evening), at seven o'clock, to address the Electors.

W. H. WELLS, Secretary, Sydney District. Committee Rooms, Farrell's, Farriers' Arms, July 27. 1408

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

ELECTORS OF NORTH SHORE, MIDDLE HARBOR, PITWATER, ST. LEONARDS, LAKE COVE, AND SURROUNDING DISTRICTS.

MR. NELSON S. LAWSON will meet the voters resident in the above districts on Monday next, the 31st instant, at ten o'clock in the morning, at Redgrave's, Billy Blue's Point, North Shore.

W. H. WELLS, Secretary, Sydney District. Committee Rooms, Farrell's, Farriers' Arms, Sydney, July 27. 1341

CENTRAL COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Australian Inn, Paramatta, 20th July, 1848.

LAWSON'S CENTRAL COMMITTEE will meet at the above Rooms EVERY EVENING, at 7 o'clock, for despatch of business, &c.

JAMES F. PLUNKETT, JOHN HAMILTON, Joint Secretaries to the Central Committee. 1121

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND ELECTION.

A MEETING was held at the Union Inn, Richmond, on Monday, the 24th instant, at 12 o'clock a.m., G. Bowman, Esq., in the Chair. It was proposed, seconded, and carried unanimously, that Mr. Nelson S. Lawson, is a fit and proper person to represent the interests of the County of Cumberland in the ensuing Legislative Council.

JAMES CULLEN, Secretary to the Windsor District Committee. 1461

MR. NELSON LAWSON'S ELECTION FOR THE METROPOLITAN COUNTY.

A VERY numerous and respectable meeting was held at Mr. Perry's, Rose Inn, Penrith, on Monday, the 24th instant, precisely at 4 p.m., Alexander Fraser, Esq., in the Chair.

Proposed by Mr. RYAN, and seconded by JOHN TYPAL, that Mr. Lawson is a fit and proper person to represent the interests of the Metropolitan County. Carried by acclamation.

This, and the Richmond meeting, was marked with a peculiar feeling of respect for Mr. Lawson, the Electors having pledged themselves to plump for the Iron Bark Sapping. JAMES CULLEN, Secretary to the Windsor Committee. 1462

MR. NELSON S. LAWSON'S ELECTION FOR CUMBERLAND.

A NUMEROUS and highly respectable meeting of the Electors of the County of Cumberland, residing within the limits of the Windsor district, was held at Coffey's Hotel, on Saturday, the 22nd instant.

George Bowman, Esq., having been unanimously voted to the chair, in a brief speech, opened the proceedings, and introduced Mr. Lawson to the meeting.

Mr. Lawson, in a very neat and appropriate discourse, explanatory of his political and religious sentiments, addressed the electors at some length, and his replies to the various important questions put to him, gave general satisfaction.

It was proposed by Robert Fitzgerald, Esq., and seconded by William Bowman, Esq., that Mr. Nelson S. Lawson, is a fit and proper person to represent the Metropolitan County in the ensuing Legislative Council.

Carried unanimously. A committee composed of the following gentlemen was immediately formed, pledging themselves to use their utmost exertions to secure the return of Mr. Lawson:—

Mr. R. Fitzgerald Mr. Geo. Freeman John Barker W. Colles John Hoskinson W. T. Bayles J. Higginson Wm. Durham John Cameron W. Gibbins W. Blanchard Charles Eazy Thos. Champion James Dargia George Cupitt

It was moved and seconded, that Mr. Bowman do leave, and that Mr. Fitzgerald do take the chair, when a vote of thanks was awarded to Mr. Bowman for his impartial and gentlemanlike conduct in the chair. Carried by acclamation. JAMES CULLEN, Secretary to the Windsor District Committee. 1369

MR. NELSON S. LAWSON'S ELECTION.

THE Central Committee will meet at the Australian Inn, Paramatta, every evening at 7 o'clock.

J. HAMILTON, Joint Secretaries to the Central Committee.

The Sydney District Committee will meet at Farrell's, Farriers' Arms, at 11 o'clock.

W. H. WELLS, Secretary to the Sydney District. 1151

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

ELECTORS OF BALMAIN AND SURROUNDING DISTRICTS.

MR. NELSON S. LAWSON will meet the voters resident in the neighbourhood on Monday next, the 31st instant, at Mr. Alton's, Unity Hall, Balmain, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

W. H. WELLS, Secretary, Sydney District. Committee Rooms, Farrell's, Farriers' Arms, Sydney, July 27. 1342

MR. NELSON LAWSON'S ELECTION FOR CUMBERLAND.

A NUMEROUS and highly respectable Meeting of the Electors of the Cook's River District was held This Day, at Gannon's Inn, Cook's River, at ten o'clock.

Thomas Agars, Esq., having been unanimously voted to the chair, in a brief speech, opened the proceedings, and introduced Mr. Lawson to the meeting.

Mr. Lawson, in a short but impressive speech, addressed the meeting, touching on the various subjects on which he had been questioned by some of the electors, and gave the greatest satisfaction to the meeting, having also pledged himself to "Civil and Religious Liberty."

It was proposed by John Ryan Brennan, Esq., and seconded by Mr. Kelsey:— That Mr. Lawson is a fit and proper person to represent the county in the Legislative Council. Carried unanimously.

A Committee was formed to canvass the district. It was moved and seconded—That the thanks of the meeting are due to Thomas Agars, Esq., for his very able and efficient conduct in the chair. Carried unanimously. W. H. WELLS, Secretary. July 25. 4194

MR. NELSON S. LAWSON'S ELECTION FOR CUMBERLAND.

A NUMEROUS meeting of the electors of the County of Cumberland residing in the vicinity of Newtown was held this day, at one o'clock, at Richard's, Newtown Inn, Newtown.

Robert Henderson, Esq., was unanimously called to the chair.

Mr. Lawson having been called on for an expression of his political opinions, came forward and stated that from the earliest period of his life, when he was capable of forming an opinion upon any subject, he was always the firm and honest supporter of civil and religious liberty, and to the latest hour of his existence he should be always found ready and willing to defend it to the utmost extent of his power.

He next adverted to the subject of Education, and stated that he was a strenuous supporter of the General System of Education. It was proposed by Mr. Wallis, and seconded by Mr. Michael Gannon:—

That Mr. Nelson S. Lawson is a fit and proper person to represent the County in the Legislative Council. Carried unanimously.

That the thanks of the meeting are due to Mr. Robert Henderson for his efficient conduct in the chair. Carried unanimously.

A Committee having been formed to canvass the district, the meeting broke up with every feeling of satisfaction in favour of Mr. Lawson. W. H. WELLS, Secretary. July 25. 1452

MR. LAWSON met the Electors of Cumberland resident in the neighbourhood of Canterbury, at Kelsey's Inn, at four o'clock on the same day, when he met with a most cheering reception, having been taken by the hand by one of the electors, who stated that he had known him from his infancy up to the present hour,—that he stood by his cradle, and from that period up to the present hour he had never known a single act of his, either public or private, of which he might feel ashamed; he had always known him as a straightforward honest man, and notwithstanding the vile calumnies uttered by the enemies of Mr. Lawson, he stood forward to tell the electors of Cumberland that Mr. Lawson and he alone should have his undivided support.

Mr. Lawson then went over his political views, having cited most of the leading topics which are likely to occupy the attention of the Legislative Council—the expression of his sentiments seemed to meet a general approval.

It was proposed by Mr. W. B. Lucas, and seconded by Mr. Robert Gardner:— That Nelson Lawson is a fit and proper person to represent the County of Cumberland, and that the Electors present, about fifty in number, pledge themselves to use their utmost exertions to secure his return. Carried unanimously.

A Committee was formed to canvass the district. W. H. WELLS, Secretary. 1492

DR. BATES may be consulted, as usual, in every branch of the medical profession, at Morley's, bookseller, corner of O'Connell and Hunter streets, and opposite the Union Bank.

Memoranda—containing the History and Treatment of all Diseases of the Bowels, Bladder, Uterus, &c., in cloth, 6s. Price 5s. 1427

COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND, RESIDING AT CAMPERDOWN VILLAGE, ANMADALE, GLEBE, LIVERPOOL ROAD, ASHFIELD, GARRY OWEN, AND THE SURROUNDING NEIGHBOURHOOD.

THE Friends of H. G. SMITH, Esq., and of CHARLES COWPER, Esq., will meet the Electors This Evening, Thursday, the 27th July, at 7 p.m., at West's Red Lion Inn, Paramatta Road, near the Toll Bar.

G. MORANT SIMPSON, Secretary. Central Committee Rooms, White Horse, George-street, July 27. 1153

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND.

GENTLEMEN,—In my Address, I made known to you, so far as I well could, my views on certain public matters, which I am induced to believe have generally met your approval. But I hear that rumours are circulating which may tend to injure me in the minds of many Electors.

To disabuse an opponent's mind when carried along in the excitement of an Election, is all but impossible, for few can give an adversary an impartial hearing; however, as there must be among your body a large number of quiet and reflective minds, it is possible my efforts may not be in vain.

Two reasons are given, and widely circulated, why I am not deserving your support. The one is that I am not a County Man, and the other is that I am a Puseyite.

It is true my possessions in lands are not on an extensive scale; but as I live in the county, and find above one-half of its constituency are residents in the country around Sydney, and are more or less engaged in business, it surely cannot be said that I am an ineligible candidate on that ground. In what respect I am considered a Puseyite, I am quite at a loss to understand; my principles have ever been quite contrary to what that name is supposed to convey. Through life it has ever been my desire to do to others as I wish to be done by; consequently, I never have, and never will, interfere with another's religion.

Having now fully explained my sentiments on the two points upon which misapprehension appears to exist, with renewed confidence I solicit your votes and suffrages. I remain, Gentlemen, Your very obedient servant, HENRY G. SMITH.

TO GEORGE OAKES, ESQ.

Paramatta, 10th July.

SIR,—We the undersigned, Electors of the Town of Paramatta, request you will allow yourself to be put in nomination at the approaching Election, to represent our interests in the Legislative Council, and we pledge ourselves to use our best exertions to secure your election.

We are, Sir, Your obedient servants, Samuel Burge, William Byrnes, Ralph Mood, John Mills, Jordan Sparks, William Anderson, Robert Knowles, Joseph Gray, John Byrnes, William Stock, William Maddox, Charles Jackson, Edward Franklin, John Carson, Joseph Brodgen, William Dick, Richard Harper, Robert Evans, Joseph Bams, John Norris, William Entwistle, John Smith, Vincent Bellman, Thomas Simm, Joseph Jones, John Booth, Joseph Hard, Robert Davis, Thomas Blake, Charles Porter, Robert Fleming, William Monks, George Buckley, William Lawthwaite, William White, James Gregg, Robert Halliday, James Delany, John W. Pass, Samuel Barbey, Allan McKiernan.

GENTLEMEN,—I thank you most sincerely for the honour you have conferred on me in requesting that I will allow myself to be put in nomination at the approaching election, to represent your interests in the Legislative Council, and I have much pleasure in complying with a requisition so numerous and respectfully signed.

Should my fellow-townsmen elect me to the important trust to which you have thus invited me, I shall at all times feel ambitious to discharge its duties to the satisfaction of my constituents, and the advancement of the town in which I was born and am a permanent resident.

I have the honour to remain, Gentlemen, Your obliged and faithful servant, GEORGE OAKES.

To Mr. J. McKay and the other gentlemen who have signed the requisition. 692

Paramatta, 10th July, 1848.

THE undersigned will make advances on wool, tallow, and other produce consigned to Mr. Robert How, London.

ROBERT HOW AND CO., Lower George-street, 9560

TO THE ELECTIONS OF THE TOWN OF PARRAMATTA.

GENTLEMEN,—Having come forward at your request to offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election for the representation of the town, and having in my answer to the requisition so numerous and respectfully signed done no more than acknowledged its receipt, and accept the invitation, I now feel it a duty incumbent upon me to address you upon some of those leading subjects of legislation in which we are all deeply interested.

Had our late Council continued to work during the whole five years of their existence as they did during the first and second years, very little would have now remained to be done with reference to the large and extravagant expenditure in government departments. Our country is overwhelmed with such expenditure, and nothing short of economy in all the public establishments will suffice to relieve us from our embarrassments. An extravagant Government makes an extravagant people.

The question is one in which many of you have a personal interest. As regards its withering effects upon the energies of its victims, the Home Government appear to treat it with careless indifference. To release the colony from so injurious an impost would be at once to give vitality to every individual now suffering under its pressure; and confident, as I am, that it hangs like an incubus upon the colony, my best energies shall be directed to its speedy removal.

I am entirely opposed to the twenty shillings per acre land regulations. A reduction of at least fifteen shillings per acre in the upset price would be the most direct means of obviating every difficulty with reference to the late Orders in Council.

I look upon the Post Office regulations as requiring all the attention which it may be competent for the local legislature to bestow; this department ought not to be made a taxing machine, but in order that it may be in the highest degree useful to all classes of the community, it should be conducted upon the most economical principles, so as to admit of great reductions in the rates of postage, and thereby encourage a large increase in the correspondence of the people.

I am favourable to the introduction of railway communication, provided legitimate means can be resorted to for meeting its cost, so as to prevent reckless speculation. My religious principles are Protestant and whilst warmly attached to the Church of my choice, I am at all times anxious to see perfect equality amongst all churches. Class legislation, whether civil or ecclesiastical, shall never find a supporter in me.

Education—a subject that has occupied the minds of statesmen for years past, and one of paramount importance—will demand my most serious attention. I am not wedded to any particular system; but my opinions are favourable to some well defined general system for the rural districts, believing that schools of that character would meet the exigencies of the people in remote and thinly populated parts of the colony; the existing denominational schools should be still supported, except in localities where a majority of the inhabitants were anxious to have the national system introduced.

To these views of questions affecting the colony at large, I will only add that in whatever may concern the common interests of our town and neighbourhood, such as securing an abundant supply of pure and wholesome water, and the maintenance of our charitable institutions, I trust you will never find me wanting in faithfulness and zeal.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant,
GEORGE OAKES.

Town Clerk's Office, Sydney, July 21, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that tenders will be received at this office for a team either of horses or bullocks with harness, driver, and poughman complete, to work the Corporation plough on the streets of the city. Full particulars may be obtained at the office of the City Surveyor.

By order of the Improvement Committee,
JOHN RAE,
Town Clerk.

No. 48-245.

Town Clerk's Office, Sydney, 17th July, 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Tenders will be received at this Office till Friday, the 4th August next, for forming and repairing Goulburn-street, from George to Elizabeth streets, as per plan and specification of the City Surveyor.

Full particulars may be obtained on application at the office of the City Surveyor, Town Hall, York-street.

By order of the Improvement Committee,
JOHN RAE,
Town Clerk.

938

LONDON ALLIANCE FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

SYDNEY BRANCH.

MESSRS. THACKER AND CO. hereby give notice, that they are duly authorized to issue Policies of Insurance against Fire, on behalf of the above Company, at very reduced rates of premium.

For further particulars apply to THACKER AND CO.,
Fort-street, Sydney.

9831

BILLS ON ENGLAND.

THE Bank of New South Wales will sell their bills on England.

By order of the Board of Directors,
J. BLACK,
Cashier.

Bank of New South Wales, Sydney, May 18, 1848.

8630

GUINNESS'S DUBLIN STOUT.—The undersigned have just received

ex John Dalton, a shipment of the above

porter.
JOUBERT AND MURPHY,
July 7.

450

EXPERIMENTAL SILK INSTITUTION.

PERSONS disposed to encourage the objects of this Institution are earnestly requested to intimate as early as possible to any of the Committee, or to the undersigned, the sums which they may be willing to contribute.

ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL,
Hon. Secretary,
Jamison-street July 25.

1471

AUSTRALIAN GENERAL ASSURANCE COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Dividend of 10 per cent. on the paid up capital of this Company has been declared for the year ended 30th June last, and that the same will be payable to the Shareholders, on and after Thursday, the 27th instant.

J. C. PHELPS,
Secretary,
Sydney, 19th July.

TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

THE Surgeon of the Penrith District Dispensary and Benevolent Society, having tendered his resignation, a Special General Meeting of the Subscribers of the Institution will be held on FRIDAY, the 4th day of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, at the Committee Room, Horse Inn, Penrith, for the purpose of appointing his successor. Medical gentlemen desirous of the appointment are requested to send in their applications addressed to the undersigned, on or before that day, by twelve o'clock noon.

ALEXANDER FRASER,
Honorary Secretary,
Penrith, July 20.

1189

MRS. SMYTH, PIANISTE, will for the future give all her lessons at No. 70, Hunter-street, corner of Elizabeth-street.

1204

REDUCED FROM £1 1s. TO 1s.

PLUNKETT'S AUSTRALIAN MAGISTRATE, a Guide to the Duties of a Justice of the Peace, with numerous forms; also an Appendix, containing the Rules and Regulations relating to the Crown Lands, the new Jury Act, the Laws of Landlord and Tenant, with the Tenements Act, and Act for Facilitating the Granting of Leases, and the Recovery of Small Debts Act. New edition by Edwin Suttor, Esq., Barrister at Law. 8vo. cloth.

The undersigned respectfully desire to inform the Australian public, that they have bought the entire interest and stock of the above publication, which they have decided on offering for sale at the lowest price consistent with profit. It is almost unnecessary to remark that the utility of the work is conclusively established from the fact of the rapid sale of the whole of the very large impression of the first edition; indeed every individual connected with the colony by property, whether Settler, Banker, Merchant, or Tradesman, should be in possession of a copy.

COLMAN AND PIDDINGTON,
Booksellers, Stationers, and Bookbinders,
483, George-street.

Directly opposite the Barrack Gate. 5265

SIMMONDS AND CO.,

COMMISSION MERCHANTS AND GENERAL AGENTS,

6, Barge yard, Bucklersbury, London.

SOLICIT a continuance of those kind favours which had been bestowed upon their firm for so many years past, and will be happy to receive and execute orders and commissions for all descriptions of goods that may be required by the inhabitants of New South Wales.

As there is the only Agency House in London, specially devoted to commission business for the Australian Provinces, which has a general knowledge of the wants and requirements of the colonies, they trust that, independent of the special claims to the support of the proprietors and merchants and public generally, they shall be favoured with a continuance of the commission of their friends. All orders accompanied by a remittance, or reference for payment, will be most promptly and punctually attended to.

MATTLAND.

THE Undersigned having taken the STORES at EAST MATTLAND, lately occupied by Mr. James Barker, beg to inform the public that Matlland and the district, that the Stores are NOW RE-OPENED with a NEW STOCK OF FRESH GOODS.

The Stores will be found to contain a general assortment of every description of Goods, and which will be sold at the lowest remunerative price; and trusts by civility and strict attention to his customers to ensure a share of the patronage bestowed upon his predecessor.

GEORGE CRAIG,
Late Barker's Stores,
East Matlland.

266

HOLLOWAY'S MEDICINES.

THE Undersigned begs to apprise his agents in the country that he has just received, ex Emma and Emperor of China, two large consignments of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, which he expects will be landed in the course of this week.

Agents who are waiting for supplies will please communicate at once with the whole-sale agent, and at the same time state in precise terms their addresses, as the undersigned will feel it necessary, from the quantity of spurious pills which have been sold during the late scarcity of the genuine medicines, to advertise the names of those persons from whom the public may purchase in future with confidence.

J. K. HEYDON,
Sole Wholesale Agent,
75, King-street.

July 24.

COMFITS AND LOZENGES.—On

sale by the undersigned,

R. B. COOKE,
Wholesale and Export Confectioner, Manufacturer of Vinegar and Pickles, No. 16, Hunter-street, second door from Bligh-street.

850

EX EMPEROR OF CHINA AND EMMA.

AMBROSE FOSB, Wholesale and Retail Chemist, Druggist, &c., 312, Pitt-street North, has received a supply of genuine Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, &c., &c., &c.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, BLAIR'S GOUT PILLS, Hunt's Pills, Johnson's American Soothing Syrup, DREDDGE'S HEAL ALL, Hooper's, Bond's, and Butler's Marking Ink, DINEFORD'S Magnesia, LOCOCOT'S Pulmonic Wafers, POWELL'S BALSAM, ANKED, Freeman's Bathing Spirit, Quinine, ETHER, Valerianate, Zine, Perchloride and Bisulphuret Carbon, Chlorine, Chloride Iodine, OTTO DE ROSE, STRYCHNINE (crystals), Citrate Iron and Quinine, NITRATE SILVER, Nitro, Nitric, Sulphuric, and PHOSPHORIC Acids, ESSENCE LEMON, OIL PEPPER-MINT, Linet Aconite, Salipernella, Turkey and East India GUM ARABIC, Oil Cubebs and Sabin; Rad. Sarsa Jam, PISTE-FRACT Cakes, CAYENNE, Tolu, Magnesia, HOREHOUND and Fruit Lozenges, Bitter Almonds, and an assortment of Magnificent Toilet Bottles, &c., &c., &c.

GEORGE CHISHOLM,
253, PITT-STREET.

HAS determined to dispose of the whole of his remaining stock of winter drapery, at a considerable reduction from his former low prices.

It is not his intention to give a long list of low priced goods for the purpose of making up a puffing advertisement, but begs to assure both

TOWN AND COUNTRY BUYERS, that they will find this an excellent opportunity to purchase from a well assorted stock, at prices much lower than they usually give for similar articles.

A large lot of gala plaids, plaid shawls, woollen capes, and Berlin wool goods. Watered silk and satin mantles and scarfs. Rich Cashmere, de Laine, and corded Ottoman dresses. Kidderminster and Brussels carpets, druggists and health rugs, and many other goods too numerous to particularize, will be found particularly deserving of notice.

July 17.

PREMISES COMING DOWN.

SELLING OFF

CHAPTER THAN EVER.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE HEE HIVE

again bring before the notice of the AUSTRALIAN PUBLIC the fact that they are preparing for the time when their shop must be pulled down; they are desirous to dispose of as much of their stock as they can previous to the commencement of the

ENSUING YEAR;

and they can with safety say that they are really selling

DRAPERY, SLOPS, &c. at lower prices than ever; and at everybody knows there is the best assorted and most extensive stock in the colony, so that it is obviously to the advantage of all parties to purchase at this

WELL-KNOWN HOUSE.

RECOLLECT:

CASH ONLY AND NO ABATEMENT.

CHRISTOPHER NEWTON AND BROTHER.

1323

FRUIT TREES.

FOR SALE by the undersigned, a choice collection of Fruit Trees, comprising fifteen varieties of oranges, including the Lisbon lemon, lime, shaddock, and citron, all worked on seedling stocks; thirty varieties of pear; twenty of the best known sorts of apple; cuttings and rooted plants of twenty choice sorts of desert and wine grapes; seventeen sorts of peaches and nectarines; four of apricots; ten varieties of plums; five of cherries; guava, filbert, pomegranate, mulberry, almond, loquat, rose apple, banana, custard apple, walnut, &c.

All orders punctually attended to, and trees carefully packed for the country or neighbouring colonies.

JOHN BAPTIST,
Market Garden.

1071

GOOSEBERRY AND CURRANT BUSHES.

THE undersigned begs to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has just received per Emma, from Hobart Town, a very fine assortment of red, white, and black currant bushes, and a very great variety of gooseberry bushes, which he is enabled to sell at a very low price.

GEORGE McDONALD,
Seedsman,

George-street, opposite Jamison-street.

N.B.—He has also received per Emma, a fresh supply of garden seeds, of every description.

150

TO MERCHANTS AND SHIPPERS OF MERCHANDISE TO AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND.

M. R. HYAM JOSEPH, Auctioneer and general Commission Agent, Auckland, New Zealand, begs to tender his services to merchants and others shipping goods to this market, and feels convinced, from his long experience of seven years in New Zealand, and his knowledge of the most advantageous method of effecting sales, presents considerable inducements to shippers to consign their goods to him for sale and returns, and while every exertion will be made to accomplish prompt disposal of shipments, at the same time the interests of the consignee will not be lost sight of. Where it would at any time be advisable that the goods entrusted him should not be stored free of expense, and liberal advances made upon the consignment if required, H. J. begs to refer for reference to Messrs. Rowland, McNab, and Co.; Mr. Samuel Lyons; Mr. Charles Newton; Mr. M. Joseph.

1507

ROSE BAY HOTEL.

THOMAS MARTIN begs to intimate that he has opened the house and grounds formerly occupied by Thomas Holt, Esq., situated at Rose Bay, only three and a half miles from the city.

Wedding, Pic-nic, and other parties in pursuit of pleasure, will find it an agreeable retreat.

For the accommodation of those gentlemen who may feel disposed to walk or ride out in the forenoon of a Sunday, T. M. purposes furnishing an ordinary at one o'clock.

N.B.—A good Larder, extensive stabling, and an unlimited supply of spring water on the premises; and every article furnished of the best quality at moderate charges.

JAMES BARR,
Paddington.

1272

WINE, SPIRITS, &c., &c.

CHAMPAGNES, Hocks, Claret, Sauterne, Baraco, Port, Sherry, Madeira, Martell's Brandy, (both in and out of bond), Champagne ditto, in cases, Holland, Li-queurs (French and Dutch), Ale and Porter, in 3 dozen cases. On sale at

I. O. GLANHAM'S,
861, George-street.

Next to Mr. S. Lyons's.

Parties requiring any of the above mentioned articles, will do well to call at the stores of the above, where they will find the best selected stock in the city.

1473

FOR SALE, a Second-hand Whale-boat, in good condition. To be seen at Mr. Thomas Day's, junior, Sussex-street.

July 25.

1467

ON Sale at the Stores of the undersigned—

Wool-bagging

Woolpacks

Wool-lashing

Three bushel bags (hemp and tow)

Canvas assorted Nos.

Seaming twine

Hats, hair-sewing

Europe rope, assorted sizes

Osnaburgh

Cutlery, hardware, turnip machines

Winnowing machines, ploughs

Wheats, siles, land rollers, &c.

Chains, hooks, claws, &c.

Coffee, hysonskin tea

Prime York hams

Good rum sugar

Put and sherry in pipes, hogheads, and quarter-casks

SMITH, BROTHERS, AND CO.

July 24.

1323

FOR SALE, at the stores of the underigned—

RUM, B. P. foreign colonial

BRANDY, Martell's, and other brands

Gin, in wood and cases

DUNNAN'S fine old tom

Ditto bottled ale and porter

Tan, hysonskin and congon, best qualities

Souas, Java, Siam, and Mauritius, yellow and white

Coffins, Java and Manila

Woolpacks, corn sacks, sewing twine

Bengal twine, Europe cordage, canvas

Tobacco, just landed and fresh

Paint oils, washing soda

Grocer's paper, prints, druggists, &c., &c.

SMITH AND CAMPBELL,
Campbell's Wharf.

Sydney, March 12.

8958

BELMONT SPERM CANDLES,

on sale at the Stores of

CHARLES CHAPMAN,

Adjoining the Post Office.

1328

MAIZE and Oats on sale at the Stores

of the undersigned, in lots to suit purchasers.

A liberal allowance to the trade and shippers.

W. DEAN
Rothurst-street West.

1420

PATENT Sperm and Composite

Candles, in boxes of 25 lbs. each, on sale at the stores of

JAMES AND JOSEPH LEVICK.

ALE AND STOUT.

ON SALE at the Stores of the undersigned—

Town's XXX Stout and Strong Ale, in draught and bottle.

ABRAM BRERLEY,
Sussex-street.

6450

April 14.

PEWTER CANDLE MOULDS.

FOR SALE by the undersigned

1 Case Patent Candle Moulds, fitted in frames complete, with screw tops.

B. S. LLOYD.
480, George-street.

1389

WOOL AND SHEEPSKINS.

THE Undersigned are cash buyers of Wool and Sheepskins, either washed or in the grease; or will make liberal advances on wool consigned to their houses in England.

SWAIN, WEBBS, AND CO.
Harrington street, Church-hill.

8953

IRON WANTED! IRON WANTED!!

THE Undersigned is a purchaser of SHEET IRON, of 12 and 14 gauge, for which he is willing to pay a fair price.

Country storekeepers or smiths having any to dispose of will please to forward through post the particulars of size of sheets and price.

ARTHUR GRAVELY,
Ironmonger and Manufacturer,
260, Pitt-street, Sydney.

WANTED, a female Ser-ant. Apply between nine and ten o'clock in the morning, at the Auction Mart, to Mr. SAMUEL LYONS, George-street. 1469

WANTED, a female Cook. Apply to the storekeeper's wife at Messrs. GUNTER, FANNING, and Co.'s store, Spring-street. 1391

WANTED, a gardener, who thoroughly understands his business, and a young man capable of driving a team. Apply to Mr. T. ADAMS, Kent street. 1370

SHEPHERDS WANTED.—Apply at Mr. TAYLOR's, Wheat Shear Inn, Brickfield-hill, from two to four o'clock. Sydney, July 25. 1836

TO LET, a Windmill at Darlinghurst, known as Mr. Barker's windmill. Requires of HENRY LANE,
No. 202, George-street,
Brickfield-hill,
July 14. 846

TO BE LET, that desirable detached Cottage adjoining Lyons-terrace, with spacious garden and paddock, detached kitchen, coach-house, and stable, replete with conveniences and ample room for a moderate size family. For particulars apply to Mr. JOHN RICHARDS, Auctioneer, George-street. 1507

TO LET, a Cottage in Brisbane-street, South Head Road, Kent, £40 per annum. Apply to Mr. SAMUEL LYONS, George-street and Charlotte-place. 1458

NORTH SHORE.

HOUSE AND GROUNDS TO LET.

TO LET, furnished or unfurnished, a large verandah stone house, situated at a convenient distance from the Ferry, at Blue's Point, with convenient outbuildings and pleasure grounds, and about five acres of land attached. The house contains five large rooms, two kitchens, a pantry, and extensive cellars. There is an abundance of excellent water, and the situation is magnificent. For orders to view, or for further particulars, Apply to MESSRS. W. AND F. FORD,
George-street. 894

TO LET, a Cottage at Newtown, with garden, stabling, and every convenience. Enquire of Mr. HANLAW, 245, George-street, near the Post Office. 994

TO LET AT LIVERPOOL.

THE Property called Drummond Cottage. The house contains dining-room, drawing room, and six bedrooms, and attached are kitchen, wash-house, stable, coach-house, &c. There is a good garden, also an orchard, and the farm consists of about (80) eighty acres, mostly cultivated land. Rent moderate.

Apply to
JOHN TAYLOR,
9, Church-hill, Sydney. 977

GENERAL NOTICE.

THE AGENTS of this Journal, in various parts of the Colony, are as follow: Bathurst, Vale of Clwyd, Carroon, Wellington, and O'Connell Plains—Messrs. Yess and Ash. Berriema—Mr. Robert Foster. Campbelltown, Camden, Pictou, and Appin—Mr. John Brown. Clarence River—Captain Wiseman, steamer Phoenix. Goulburn, Merulan, and Baganina—Mr. Robert Craig, Cabinetmaker. Gundagai and Albury—Mr. Robert Davison. Liverpool—Mr. William Fritchard, Deputy Postmaster. Maitland, Patterson, Gresford, Hinton, Hexham, Dungog, Newcastle, Morpeth, and Wollombi—Mr. A. Dodds. Melbourne—Messrs. Mortimer and Son. Moreton Bay—Mr. Thomas Downes. Muschelbrock—Mr. Pierce Hegarty. Murrumbidgee, Tamworth, and Armadale—Mr. Thomas Loxton. Parramatta and Ryde—Mr. Hugh Taylor. Penrith and St. Mary's, South Creek—Mr. John Coleman. Port Macquarie and McLeay River—Mr. Horatio Toner. Port Fairy and Portland Bay—Captain Howenden. Quasney—Mr. Stephen Nutter. Raymond Terrace—Mr. John Holding, Postmaster. Singleton and Jerry's Plains—Mr. Thomas Hope, Deputy Postmaster. The District of Hawkesbury—Mr. Thomas Palmer, Deputy Postmaster. Windsor, Richmond, Wilberforce, Pitt Town, and Portland Head—Mr. Laban White. Yass—Mr. Thomas Jaidlaw.

SALES BY AUCTION.

FRIDAY, THE 28th JULY.

IMPORTANT SALE

"ROSEDALE ESTATE,"

THE PROPERTY OF D. D. MATTHEWS, ESQ.,

AT LAKE COVE.

And by that gentleman's order.

MR. STUBBS is instructed by the proprietor to sell by public auction, at the Mart, King-street, on

FRIDAY, THE 28th JULY,

At twelve o'clock precisely.

The whole of the "Rosedale Estate," subdivided into Farms, and which are now open for selection and purchase.

It is situated on the high road to Pennant Hills, Penrith, Pymble, and Clayton, and adjoins the estates of Messrs. Hassel, Bean, Ayres, Pymble, and Clayton, full description of which will appear in Saturday's Morning Herald.

Title—First-rate.

Terms at sale. 353

"SOLDIERS' POINT."
TO BE LET FOR FIFTEEN YEARS,
By Public Auction.

TO SHIPMASTERS, SHIP BUILDERS, COAL MERCHANTS, TIMBER MERCHANTS, &c.
MR. STUBBS is instructed by the Legation, &c., to let by public auction, on MONDAY, THE 31st DAY OF JULY, 1848,

On the Ground,
At twelve o'clock precisely.

The whole of that very extensive Wharf and Premises, known as SOLDIERS' POINT.

At the bottom of Esplanade-street, Darling Harbour, near Kellie's, and the Hunter River Steam Navigation Company's Wharves, either in lots to suit lessees, or the whole area in one lot.

A plan by Mr. Armstrong will be at the Mart for inspection in a few days. Rent to be paid half-yearly. 606

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, 22nd AND 23rd AUGUST.
IN THE INSOLVENT ESTATE OF ROBERT AND HELENUS SCOTT, OF GLEN ON.

By ORDER OF THE OFFICIAL ASSIGNER.
MR. SAMUEL LYONS
Will sell by auction, at Glendon, the residence of the insolvents.

ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, 22nd AND 23rd AUGUST,
At 11 o'clock each day.

600 HEAD OF CATTLE, more or less, a mixed herd, now running at Glendon.

50 Head Imported and Pure-bred DURHAM CATTLE

4 Teams working bullocks

20 Milking cows, with calves

1 Entire horse and sundry horses

About 20 to 30 pigs

12 Tons hay, in stack

Rye and wheat straw, and about two tons millet not thrashed

Portable thrashing machine for eight bullocks, flour mill, farming implements, timber for building, bricks and shingles, carriage and gig harness, saddles, bridles, &c.

Large horsebreak for two and four horses

Carriage, fitted with lamps and bars for four horses

Wagon, pole drays, shaft carts, &c.

Carpenters, coopers, blacksmiths, and shoemakers' and curriers' tools

Iron hurdles

Large woolpress, double boxes and double lever, with parallel motion

Steam boiler of four horse power, fitted with two gauge cocks and one water cock

Five large vats, double refining pan, force pumps, and other building-down implements

About 20 tons coals, fit for tallow

A copper still and worm

Large crab winch

Lot of kip and harness leather

A great variety of stores

About 1000 volumes of books

And about 50 cases superior colonial wine, consisting of Hock, Burgundy, and Sauterne.

Terms at sale. 761

THE CATTLE, CARRIAGE, WAGGONS, CARTS, and farming implements will be sold on the first day.

TO WINK MERCHANTS AND HOTEL KEEPERS.

THE CARGO

OF

THE DANIEL GRANT, FROM OPORTO.

MR. CHARLES NEWTON

HAS received instructions from Messrs. BROWN AND CO.,

To sell by auction, at his Rooms,

ON TUESDAY, 1st AUGUST,

At 11 o'clock.

The undermentioned Wines, Brandy, and Olive Oil.

JUST LANDED, EX DANIEL GRANT:—

Diamond with X across—

12 Pipes superior port wine

30 Hogsheads ditto ditto ditto

30 Quarter-casks ditto ditto ditto

O with X across—

7 Pipes superior port wine

30 Hogsheads ditto ditto ditto

30 Quarter-casks ditto ditto ditto

V with a in centre, Double diamond,

Double grape—

5 Pipes superior port wine

15 Hogsheads ditto ditto ditto

30 Quarter-casks ditto ditto ditto

V with a in centre—

Treble diamond,

Treble grape—

10 Pipes superior port wine

20 Hogsheads ditto ditto ditto

40 Quarter-casks ditto ditto ditto

Diamond with B in centre,

Double grape—

50 Cases port, one dozen each

50 Ditto ditto two ditto ditto

100 Ditto ditto three ditto ditto

Diamond with B in centre—

50 Cases port, one dozen each

30 Ditto ditto two ditto ditto

60 Ditto ditto three ditto ditto

BRANDY.

5 Pipes pale brandy

10 Hogsheads ditto ditto

20 Quarter-casks ditto ditto

5 Pipes brown ditto ditto

10 Hogsheads ditto ditto

20 Quarter-casks ditto ditto

6 Pipes olive oil

15 Hogsheads ditto ditto

15 Quarter-casks ditto ditto

Mr. Newton, in announcing this highly important sale, feels that it would be superfluous for him to say anything in praise of the Wines, as they are shipped by the well-known firm of

SANDEMAN AND CO., and the same qualities as Messrs. BROWN AND CO. have been in the habit of importing for many years. Terms liberal—at time of sale. 1249

MONDAY, 31st INSTANT.
FOR THE SERVICE OF THOSE CONCERNED.
SHEATHING COPPER AND NAILS,
By Seringsapam, Lovell, from London.

FOR SALE BY AUCTION,
BY MR. SAMUEL LYONS,
At the Stores of Messrs. Donaldson and Co., 298, Pitt-street, on MONDAY, 31st INSTANT,

At 11 o'clock precisely.

D 63-84 21 Cases sheathing copper, 16 os. 8 70-84 to 28 os.
All much damaged by salt water.
Also—out of two casks,
D 85 86 Sundry bags sheathing nails, to 15 (the damaged portion). 1378
Terms at sale.

THE FINE FAST-SAILING BRITISH BRIG

S O P H I A,

WITH ALL HER STORES, &c., &c.

NOW READY FOR SEA.

MR. GEORGE A. LLOYD

HAS the pleasure of announcing to Shipowners, Merchants, Captains, and the Mercantile community generally, that he has been favoured with instructions

TO SELL BY PUBLIC AUCTION,

At the City Mart, 474, George-street,

ON MONDAY, THE 31st INSTANT,

At 12 o'clock precisely.

(Unless previously disposed of by Private Contract.)

The remarkable fast-sailing and fine Brig SOPHIA, 208 tons o.m., but will carry 240 tons, and invariably discharges her cargo in as good condition as when shipped. At Singapore, in November, 1846, she underwent a most thorough and complete repair; in fact she was almost rebuilt, upwards of £1600 having been expended upon her under the most able and careful superintendence. Certificates to which effect can be seen at the Auctioneer's Rooms. She is now in most excellent order, and well supplied with every description of stores, and might be sent to sea immediately. She is a well found vessel in every respect. Having been a favourite vessel with her owner, no expense has been spared to render her complete.

The Sophia is now lying off the Patent Slip, and the commander will feel great pleasure in showing her, and affording every required information to intending purchasers from 10 to 12 o'clock daily.

Inventories may be seen, and all further particulars obtained by applying to the Auctioneer, 474, George-street.

Terms declared at time of sale. 1150

TUESDAY, 1st AUGUST.

SALE OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,

PIANOFORTE, CARRIAGE,

PLATE, &c.

AT "CARTHONA," MRS. DARLING'S POINT.

MR. STUBBS is favoured with instructions from A. P. Onslow, Esq., (previously to that gentleman's departure for India) to sell by public auction,

AT "CARTHONA,"

ON TUESDAY, 1st AUGUST,

At 12 o'clock precisely.

WITHOUT RESERVE.

All the excellent household furniture and effects, beds, bedsteads, hair mattresses, a few articles of beautifully carved Indian furniture, plate, china, glass, &c.

A brilliant toned PIANOFORTE

By Zeiter,

with all the latest patented improvements.

Carriage, &c.

Kitchen utensils, and the usual articles connected with the internal economy of a gentleman's residence.

Terms—Cash.

The Pianoforte will be put up at one o'clock precisely. 856

POSITIVE AUCTION

OF

600 HEAD OF HIGH-BRED HORNEB CATTLE,

NOW RUNNING IN CHARGE OF J. McDUGALL, ESQ., AT THE "SKEVER," BEYOND LIVERPOOL PLAINS.

MR. STUBBS is instructed to sell by public auction, at the Mart, King-street,

ON WEDNESDAY, THE 2nd AUGUST,

At 12 o'clock precisely.

600 HEAD OF FINE CATTLE,

Carefully bred and diligently superintended, consisting of—

Cows, Heifers, Bullocks, and Steers.

N.B. It is really painful to refer to the fact that some of these identical cattle realized £16 per head, being part of the celebrated Segenhoe breed, showing at once the advantage which the emigrant of 1848 enjoys over the emigrant and buyer of 1841, when even general herds could not be purchased under £4 10s. or £5 per head.

In 1841 the cost would have been £2400, but on the 2nd August in 1848 they are to be sold at the Mart, King-street, for what they will fetch.

Terms—Cash. 956

SALE BY AUCTION.

MR. JOHN SHEAHAN is favoured with instructions from the Right Rev. Dr. Gould, to sell by public auction, at his residence, Campbelltown,

ON TUESDAY, 1st AUGUST,

At 12 o'clock.

The following Household Furniture, viz:—

One horse-hair sofa, one loo table, one secretary.

One splendid mahogany sideboard

Two round tables, one dining table

Twelve cane-bottom chairs and arm chair

Portraits of the "Great O'Connell," by the celebrated artist, Dennis

One bookcase, fender and iron, hearth rug, iron bedstead and bedding, wash-stands, bed-room tables and glass, cut glass, kitchen utensils, &c., &c.

Terms—Cash. 1071

ST. LEONARDS AND RAYMOND TERRACE.
MR. STUBBS is instructed to sell by public auction, at the Mart, King-street.

ON SATURDAY, THE 5th DAY OF AUGUST, 1848,
At twelve o'clock precisely.

A capital Allotment in the Township of St. Leonards, near the Episcopalian Church, having the most extensive and varied views of the harbour and shipping.

Also,
A Town Allotment, Raymond Terrace, of increasing value
Terms at sale. 1533

COOK'S RIVER.

TO SMALL FARMERS, MARKET GARDENERS, AND IMMIGRANTS WITH SMALL CAPITAL.

MR. STUBBS is instructed by the Proprietor to sell by public auction, at the Mart, King-street, on

FRIDAY, THE 4th DAY OF AUGUST,

At 12 precisely.

8 Small Farms, viz:—

Lot 1.—25 Acres good open forest land

Lot 2.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 3.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 4.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 5.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 6.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 7.—25 Acres ditto ditto

Lot 8.—25 Acres ditto ditto

These Farms are situated at Cook's River, near the residence of Cornelius Frost, Esq., Under Sheriff, and in the neighbourhood of the Australasian Sugar Company's extensive Manufactory. Fuller particulars of which will appear after Mr. Armstrong's survey.

Terms at sale. 1332

FOR SALE BY AUCTION.

5488 SHEEP, AND ESTATE OF 1280 ACRES AT BURROWA PLAINS.

MR. STUBBS has been instructed by the proprietor to sell by public auction, at the Mart, King-street, on

FRIDAY, THE 4th DAY OF AUGUST,

At 12 o'clock.

THE BEAUTIFUL FARM OF "CASTLESTEAD,"

On the Burrows River, and distant from Yass 30 miles.

TOGETHER WITH

5488 SHEEP, AND 100 HEAD OF CATTLE.

depasturing on the adjoining run.

The Homestead comprises 1280 acres fine alluvial land, with frontage of about two miles to the river, and adjoining the Village Reserve; has nearly half its space inclosed by a capital three-railed fence, and subdivided into convenient paddocks. The other improvements consist of a substantial

BRICK DWELLING HOUSE erected within the last three years, with spacious verandah and French lights, nine rooms on the ground floor and large attic, detached kitchen, store, and other out houses, barn, woolshed, dairy, stocks, garden, with fruit trees, &c.

On the run are FOUR SHEEP STATIONS, with huts, hurdles, &c. The feed is abundant, and of a superior kind, and the water never failing.

THE STOCK CONSISTS OF

2310 Ewes, 2 to 5 years old, to lamb in September

940 Ditto, 1 year old

950 Wethers, 1 year old

1230 Ditto, mixed ages

5188 Sheep, more or less

100 Head of cattle, including a fine bull of the Durham breed, and much cows, broken in to bail

Working bullocks, dray, chains bows, and yokes, farming implements, Hurdles, &c.

WOOLPRESS.

Supplies in store, pigs, wheat in stack, growing crops.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, &c.,

to be taken at a valuation.

Terms at sale.

Notes—With reference to the sheep Mr. Stubbs would beg to point out to purchasers that within two months an increase of upwards of 2000 lambs may be looked for, and immediately after that there will be the clip of wool, worth at the lowest estimate upwards of £700.

1399

TO COVER THIS SEASON, AT GORDON BROOK, CLARENCE RIVER,

THE IMPORTED Arab Horse GLAUCUS, per Wigram.

GLAUCUS is a rich bay, with black points. In the Calcutta Races, first meeting, 1845 and 1846, he was the winner of the following races, vide Bengal Sporting Magazine for 1846:—